

Privacy statement

This is the privacy statement of F. Stoop B.V. In which we describe how we handle your personal information collected by us. Naturally, this data is collected, processed and used with the utmost care. We adhere to the General Data Protection Rules (AVG) and the AVG Implementation Act.

This privacy policy may change from time to time. We publish the latest version on our website at all times.

1. Purpose

The personal data obtained by us will be processed to provide services, to send offers and to ensure the full execution and compliance with agreements entered with you. In addition, we will collect these data for sending commercial newsletters and newsletters that are aimed at sharing knowledge.

2. Legal basis

The collection, processing and use of your personal data is only permitted if we have a legal basis for this. This may consist of permission obtained from you, a legal basis or that may result from the execution and / or compliance with an agreement settled with you.

3. Personal data and storage period

The personal data we process are the minimum required data for the provision of our services and products and relate to the name of your company, the name of your contact person (s), your (e-mail) address, your telephone number, as well as those data that are necessary for the execution and compliance with agreements settled with you.

Your personal data will not be stored for longer than necessary, unless we have to keep your data for a longer period, because of a statutory regulation.

4. Security

We handle your personal data carefully. To prevent unauthorized access, we have taken technical and organizational measures that ensure an appropriate level of security. In light of this, we have provided the proper security for our website, our IT systems and the physical areas where personal data is stored, while only authorized personnel can view your personal data.

5. Provision to third parties

We will only disclose personal data to third parties if this results from the execution and compliance with agreements entered with you, if you have explicitly granted permission for this or if the law obliges us to do so.

On our website you can find measuring instruments from other parties, such as cookies from Google Analytics. We do this to keep track on how visitors use our website. We use this knowledge to optimize our website for our visitors.

6. Your rights

You have the right to request at any time your personal data that we keep. If these are incorrect or have changed, we will adjust them according to your instructions. You also have the right at all times to have your data cleared by us. If you have the belief that we do not handle your data correctly, you have the right to file a complaint with the Dutch Data Authorities
